Dissolution Notices.

Richmond, Va., May 28, 1910.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS: Please be advised that the firm of N. Klein & Son. for forty-five years engaged in the general household goods and stove business in this city, have this day sold their entire stock of goods, store furniture and fixtures, name and good will to a corporation to be known as N. Klein & Son. Inc., which will be located at the old, well-established stand, No. 620 East Broad Street. This corporation is composed entirely of Richmond men, whose only aim will be to serve the trade, guaranteeing prices and goods. Mr. William M. Miller, for twenty-odd years connected with the E. B. Taylor Co., of this city, will be manager for the new corporation. The trade will have the benefit of his long experience, and we ask your continuance as patrons of the new corporation.

We heartily recommend this corporation to our friends, patrons and the public generally.

(Signed) N. KLEIN & SON.

(Referring to the above card.)

Having severed my connection with the, E. B. Taylor Co., with whom I have been connected for many years, I desire to call the attention of my friends and the public generally to the fact that I will now assume the management of a new corporation to be known as N. KLEIN & SON.

(NCORPORATED, No. 620 East Broad Sireet, Richmond, Va., and will be in a better position, and the public generally. I will give my personal attention to your wants for anything in my line. Will make every effort to please you, guaranteeing goods and prices. I ask your liberal patronage. Give me a trial and you will be convinced.

(Sizned)

(Signed) WILLIAM M. MILLER, Manager.
